

Q1: Film category wise aggregated rented time

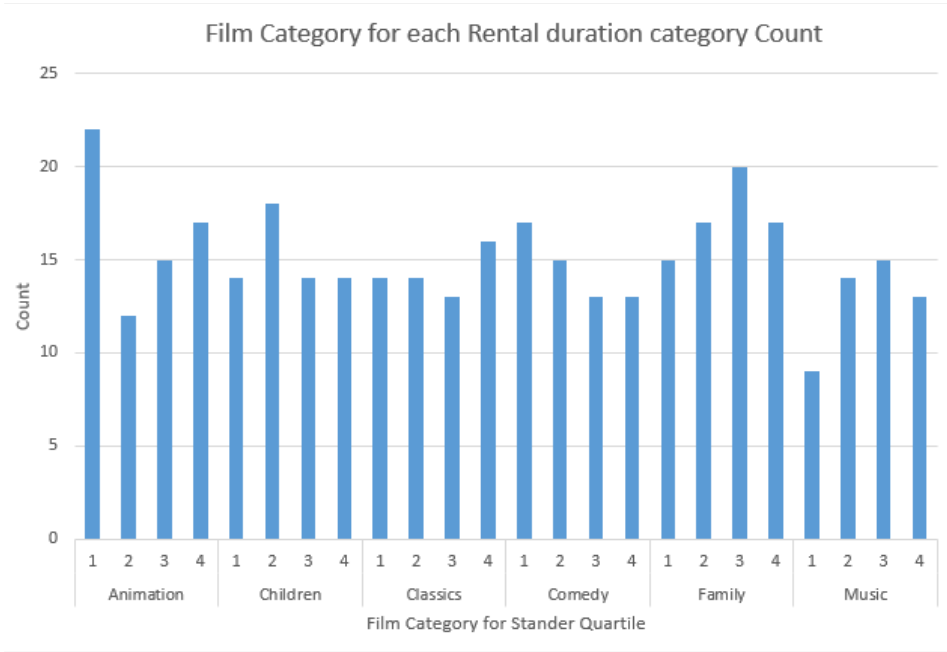

The graph give the information about the rented time of film category. The Sports, Animation and Action are most rented category while Music, Travel and Horror are the Least rented categories.

Q2: Movie Category and Four different Quartile

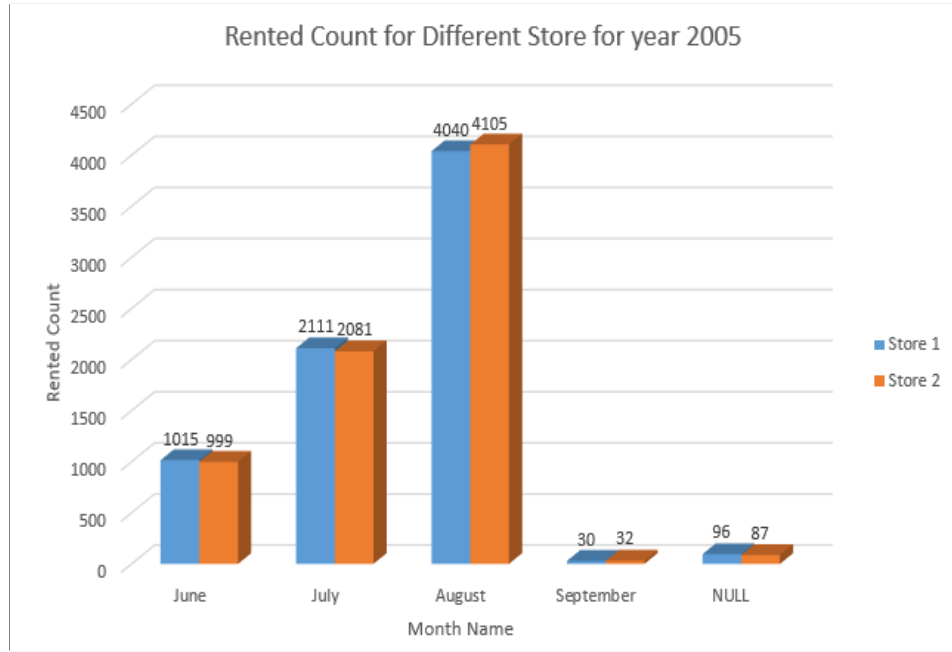

Graph give the information related to film category and different quartiles. Total Number of values are 360. maximum are related to Family category while minimum are related to Music.

Q3: Film Category for each rental duration category count

The Graph give the information related to Family Film Category for each Rental duration category Count. It shows that aggregated count of Family film category for all quartile is higher then all the other category while the Music category count is minimum.

Q4: Rented Count for Store 1 and 2 for the Year 2005

Graph illustrate the rental count of 2 different store for the year 2005. It shows that the value of rented count for the month of August is maximum for both the store while for the month of September count is minimum.